

Artifact Spotlight

April 2, 2017, marks the centennial of the address delivered to Congress by President Woodrow Wilson which resulted in the entry of the United States into World War I. This presentation copy of that famous address is preserved in the collection of the Museum of American History/Cabot Public Schools.