

Dyslexia Information

As of June 1, 2017, there are 50 students in the Cabot School District who have presented a diagnosis of dyslexia or have been identified as exhibiting characteristics of dyslexia.

During the 2016-2017 school year, 41 students were provided dyslexia intervention by the Cabot School District.

The district utilizes the Barton Reading and Spelling System for dyslexia intervention.