6: Annual Title I Meeting

(Describe/List when (provide the month/year or month/day/year) the school will hold the Annual Title I meeting to inform parents of the requirements of Title I and the school's participation as well as the parents' rights to be involved. The Annual Title I meeting should not be used to ask for parent input, but provided as an opportunity to disseminate information and distribute copies of the revised family and community engagement policy.)

- Central Elementary will conduct an annual parent meeting in September. At this meeting, the building principal provides parents with a school compact that outlines the steps that parents, school staff, and students will take to ensure academic success as a shared responsibility. Also during this meeting, the building principal updates the parents on the "state of the school." She will go over achievement data, school curriculum, and explanation of Title I and its benefits, and family and community engagement opportunities. Parents will be provided with an electronic link to a survey allowing them to request assistance in helping their student be successful. The link to the survey will also be posted on Central Elementary's Facebook page to keep all parents well informed. (Julia Treadway, September 2025)

7: School-Parent Compact

(Describe/List the process the schools will follow to jointly develop with parents a school-parent compact.)

- Central Elementary acknowledges the importance of all parties in developing a School-Parent Compact. The compact emphasizes the responsibility of parents, staff, and students for student achievement. The compact consists of "I will" statements listing the responsibilities of parents, students, teachers, and the principal. After the initial development of the compact by Central Elementary teachers, the leadership committee, which includes parents and community members, will give feedback and suggestions will be carefully considered. The School-Parent Compact will be introduced at the Title I meeting and will be sent home with students for signatures the next school day. (Julia Treadway, Jenny Blackwell, September 2025)

- The School-Parent Compact for Central Elementary will be a portion of developing a partnership to help students achieve state standards. (Julia Treadway, August 2025)
- Central Elementary will establish meaningful communication with parents by making themselves available via phone, email, and through Parent Teacher Conferences a minimum of twice a year. Parents can also communicate with teachers through apps like Remind, Classroom DOJO, and HAC (Home Access Center) for updates on their child's progress and information about class activities. These applications also give teachers access to inform parents of volunteer opportunities and other needed parent roles as well. Central Elementary also has a Parent Resource Center that parents can use to learn about these roles and opportunities. Progress reports are sent home at the end of each nine week period. (Julia Treadway, ongoing)
- Reasonable access to staff is provided via conferences, phone calls, Class DOJO app, emails, texts, and other forms of communication. Classroom observations could be available if arrangements are made through the principal and classroom teacher (Julia Treadway, ongoing)
- Central Elementary will involve parents in a variety of roles including, but not limited to, volunteers in the workroom, mentors, reading buddies, and lunch buddies. (Julia Treadway, August 2025-May 2026)
- A volunteer resource book is digitally available for staff to sign up for committees and events throughout the school year. (Jenny Blackwell, ongoing)

8: Reservation of Funds

(If the district receives more than $500,000 in Title I allocation, then it must reserve 1 percent for family and community engagement activities. A minimum of 90% of that 1% must go to the schools, with priority given to high-need schools. If the school is allocated a percentage of the 1 percent, describe/list how the school will share with parents the budget for family and community engagement activities and programs and how parents will be involved in providing input into how the funds are used.)

- Central Elementary will conduct an annual parent meeting in September 2025. At the meeting, the building principal provides parents with a school compact that outlines the steps that parents, school staff, and students will take to ensure academic success as a shared responsibility. Also during this meeting, the principal updates the parents on the "state of the school." She will go over achievement data, school curriculum, an explanation of Title I and its benefits, and family and community engagement opportunities. During this meeting, parents will complete the Title I Survey. Parents will be given the opportunity to suggest decisions regarding the allotted reserved funds for family and community engagement. (Julia Treadway, September 2025)
