- Cabot Middle School South will obtain signatures from families acknowledging receipt and location of the District FACE plan through back to school and new student registration using the online registration platform. (Ben Brockinton, October 2026)
- Family meetings will be offered at various times. (Amy Butler, ongoing)
- Parent meetings will be offered in various formats including Google Meet. Amy Butler, ongoing)
- The school will distribute a digital monthly newsletter to families developed by the assistant principal. It includes school news, a calendar of school activities, and parenting tips related to school achievement such as homework tips, organizational skills, and study skills. (Amy Butler and Ben Brockinton, ongoing)
- Parents may contact the District Family and Community Engagement Facilitator if the Title I plan is not satisfactory (Emily Taylor, ongoing)

3: Building Staff Capacity

(Describe/List activities such as workshops, conferences, trainings, webinars, online resources, and Academic Parent-Teacher Team meetings that will be used with school staff to build their capacity to work with parents as equal partners. Describe/List methods of parents' assistance for building staff capacity. Describe/List actions the school will take to provide other reasonable support for family and community engagement activities.)

- Cabot Middle School South will ensure professional development requirements are met for teachers and administrators. The yearly schedule of state required topics, including family and community engagement, will be followed. (Pam Wilson, ongoing)
- Teachers, specialized instructional support personnel, principals, other school leaders, and other staff, with the assistance of parents, will participate in district-approved professional development in areas including, but not limited to:
 - Parents playing an integral role in assisting student learning
 - The value and utility of the contributions of parents
 - How to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners
 - Implementing and coordinating parent programs and building ties between home and school
 - Welcoming parents into the school and seeking parental support and assistance
- Cabot Middle School South will provide information in a format, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand. (Melanie Duerkop, ongoing)
- Cabot Middle School South will respond to parent requests for family and community engagement activities. (Amy Butler, ongoing)
- Parents are recognized as a full partner and the process for resolving conflicts is included in the school handbook. (Michael Byrd, ongoing)

4: Building Parent Capacity

(Describe/List activities, such as workshops, conferences, classes, online resources, Academic Parent-Teacher Team meetings, and any equipment or other materials that may be necessary to support parents in helping their student's academic success.)

- Cabot Middle School South will schedule regular family and community engagement meetings. These meetings will provide information to help parents enhance their child's education as well as to provide opportunities to volunteer or help support their child's school. (Amy Butler, Ben Brockinton,

- ongoing)

- The FACE plan and the School Improvement Plan will be aligned. (Ben Brockinton, Ben Brockinton, ongoing)

6: Annual Title I Meeting

(Describe/List when (provide the month/year or month/day/year) the school will hold the Annual Title I meeting to inform parents of the requirements of Title I and the school's participation as well as the parents' rights to be involved. The Annual Title I meeting should not be used to ask for parent input, but provided as an opportunity to disseminate information and distribute copies of the revised family and community engagement policy.)

- Cabot Middle School South will conduct an annual parent meeting in September. At this meeting, the building principal provides parents with a school compact that outlines the steps that parents, school staff, and students will take to ensure academic success as a shared responsibility. Also during this meeting, the building principal updates the parents on the “state of the school.” She will go over achievement data, school curriculum, and explanation of Title I and its benefits, and family and community engagement opportunities. Parents will be provided with an electronic link to a survey allowing them to request assistance in helping their student be successful. The link to the survey will also be posted on Cabot Middle School South’s Facebook page to keep all parents well informed. (Amy Butler, September 2026)

7: School-Parent Compact

(Describe/List the process the schools will follow to jointly develop with parents a school-parent compact.)

- Cabot Middle School South acknowledges the importance of all parties in developing a School-Parent Compact. The compact emphasizes the responsibility of parents, staff, and students for student achievement. The compact consists of “I will” statements listing the responsibilities of parents, students, teachers, and the principal. After the initial development of the compact by Cabot Middle School South teachers, the leadership committee, which includes parents and community members, will give feedback and suggestions will be carefully considered. The School-Parent Compact will be introduced at the Title I meeting and will be sent home with students for signatures the next school day. (Amy Butler, Ben Brockinton, September 2026)

- The School-Parent Compact for Cabot Middle School South will be a portion of developing a partnership to help students achieve state standards. (Amy Butler, August 2026)
- Cabot Middle School South will establish meaningful communication with parents by making themselves available via phone, email, and through Parent Teacher Conferences a minimum of twice a year. Parents can also communicate with teachers through apps like Remind, Classroom DOJO, and HAC (Home Access Center) for updates on their child's progress and information about class activities. These applications also give teachers access to inform parents of volunteer opportunities and other needed parent roles as well. Cabot Middle School South also has a Parent Resource Center that parents can use to learn about these roles and opportunities. Progress reports are sent home at the midway point of each nine week period. (Amy Butler, ongoing)
- Reasonable access to staff is provided via conferences, phone calls, Class DOJO app, emails, texts, and other forms of communication. Classroom observations could be available if arrangements are made through the principal and classroom teacher (Amy Butler, ongoing)
- Cabot Middle School South will involve parents in a variety of roles including, but not limited to, volunteers, mentors, career fair, school events, and lunch guests. (Amy Butler, August 2026-May 2027)

8: Reservation of Funds

(If the district receives more than $500,000 in Title I allocation, then it must reserve 1 percent for family and community engagement activities. A minimum of 90% of that 1% must go to the schools, with priority given to high-need schools. If the school is allocated a percentage of the 1 percent, describe/list how the school will share with parents the budget for family and community engagement activities and programs and how parents will be involved in providing input into how the funds are used.)

- Cabot Middle School South will conduct an annual parent meeting in September 2026. At the meeting, the building principal provides parents with a school compact that outlines the steps that parents, school staff, and students will take to ensure academic success as a shared responsibility. Also during this meeting, the principal updates the parents on the "state of the school." She will go over achievement data, school curriculum, an explanation of Title I and its benefits, and family and community engagement opportunities. During this meeting, parents will complete the Title I Survey. Parents will be given the opportunity to suggest decisions regarding the allotted reserved funds for family and community engagement. (Amy Butler, September 2026)
